Thirty years ago the Health Care for the Homeless Project opened its first clinic in a converted cloak room in DC’s Pierce Street Shelter. Today the Health Care for the Homeless Project, now known as Unity Health Care, provides health and human services to over 108,000 individuals in the District of Columbia. We hope you are able to join and support us as we continue our mission of “promoting healthier communities through compassion and comprehensive health and human services, regardless of ability to pay.”
